REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Bennettsville Middle School has a lot to be proud of! We are a Value-Added "5" TAP (Teacher Advancement Program) School for the second year in a row; we have three Junior Scholars, which is up from zero last year; five students were selected to participate in the "From Middle to High" School Governor's School Program; and we have a special education teacher who was selected as one on thirty-two teachers for the NASET Outstanding Special Education Teachers Award (the only one from South Carolina).

This school year, Bennettsville Middle School received technical assistance from the South Carolina Department of Education and Edisionlearning, as a part of the Turnaround Initiative. Students participated in monthly benchmark assessments, ten-day assessments, Compass Learning Lab and 21st CCLC after-school program at Marlboro County High School campus. Incentives were given monthly for attendance, grades and discipline. The highlight of the year was for students to meet Denver Bronco linebacker Robert Ayers; a product of Marlboro County School District.

Improvement in teacher quality continued through weekly TAP clusters and in-house professional development. Professional developed was provided for teachers by master teachers, administrators, district turnaround coordinator and Edisionlearning.

Attempts to engage the community more was done through volunteering and mentoring. Some of the organizations that contributed to our school are St. Paul's Episcopal Church (Dare to Hope Program), Evans Correctional Facility, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. and Delta Sigma Theta Sorority.
